

Contact: Dan Walsh
952-345-3421
dwalsh@certespros.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Certes Financial Pros Names New Director of Client Services in its Contracting Group

Julie Lovin joins award-winning high level financial staffing firm

MINNEAPOLIS—May 31, 2007—Certes Financial Pros, one of the Twin Cities' leading providers of high level financial staffing to companies needing interim, project, and permanent staffing support, has hired Julie Lovin as director of client services for its contracting group. Julie will be responsible for providing client services, employee relations and recruiting efforts.

“I am very happy to announce that Julie has joined our group,” says Sally Mainquist, Certes CEO and president. Julie brings a wealth of experience and industry relationships having worked in the financial staffing industry for several years, first with Resources Global Professionals and most recently with David Abramson & Associates. Lovin has held other positions that include Sr. Manager at Ernst & Young and financial leadership positions, up to and including CFO, at several leading Twin Cities businesses before joining the staffing industry.

Ms. Lovin resides in Maple Grove, Minn., and is a graduate of Concordia College, Moorhead, Minn. For more information about Certes Financial Pros, call 952-345-4140 or visit www.certespros.com.

About Certes Financial Pros

Started by Karen Oman in 1994, Certes Financial Pros, a provider of high level financial staffing to Twin Cities companies needing interim, project, and permanent staffing support, is based in St. Louis Park, Minnesota, and has 200 employees. Certes employees benefit from the unique culture, including outstanding benefits and work-life balance philosophies.

In May of 2007, Sally Mainquist took over as CEO and president of Certes Financial Pros. Ms. Oman remains closely involved with the company as its chair of the board of directors.

###