FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Certes Financial Pros Names Sally Mainquist President and CEO

MINNEAPOLIS—May 8, 2007—Certes Financial Pros, Inc. has promoted Sally Mainquist to the position of President and CEO. In addition to her new duties as President and CEO, Sally will maintain her client service responsibilities. Karen Oman, the Founder of Certes and its previous President and CEO, plans to continue serving Certes as Chair of the Board of Directors. Karen looks forward to continuing to write and speak about Certes' work-life balance philosophies.

"I have loved being President of Certes but it is time to pass the reins to someone who can continue to move this company to higher levels of sophistication and growth. Sally has been filling much of this role on my behalf for the last year. In Sally's eight years with Certes, as Senior Vice President of Client Services, she has proven to be extraordinarily talented at establishing and growing strong relationships, fulfilling client needs, and developing Certes' back office infrastructure. I am thrilled that Sally has formally accepted this position," says Karen Oman.

Sally Mainquist, CPA, is a native of Iowa and graduated from the University of Northern Iowa with a B.S. degree in Accounting. Prior to joining Certes, she held a variety of financial and operational roles with Recovery Engineering (PUR), Graco, and KPMG.
